MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Defector Citizenship Legislation: Talking Points for DDO meeting with Senator Simpson

1. On 10 September 1985, I gave the attached set of talking points to [] Special Assistant to the DO. They are to be used by the DDO at his meeting with Senator Simpson concerning defector citizenship legislation. Mr. [] and I discussed the distinct possibility that no meeting would occur before 11 September 1985, the date by which the Senate Judiciary Committee is discharged of the legislation, in view of the fact that the DDO is testifying on the Hill on the 11th at 10:00, and Senator Simpson is bringing the immigration bill, S. 1200, to the Senate floor at that time also. Nevertheless, it appears that the DDO's office will attempt to schedule the meeting.

2. Even if the Committee discharges the bill without having taken any positive action of it, I believe that an after-the-fact meeting will nonetheless have some positive benefit, particularly if there is a floor fight on the provision or Senator Simpson's support is necessary vis-a-vis the House Judiciary Committee.
